Spring Mission Trip 2009

The Presbyterian Disaster Response Network is in the planning stages of a spring mission trip. Both men and women over the age of 18 are invited to participate. For those of you who went on the Buloxi trip you might remember Mr. Joe Fielden. This morning Fritz said that that Joe will be returning with us this Spring, so I look forward to his expertise in the construction field.

A contact is being made in the Beaumont, Texas area where the need is "Basic" in that homes need to be "mucked" or cleaned out from the mess left by Hurricane Ike but we're also looking to send a team or teams back to the Gulf Bay St. Louis area where there is still major rebuilding work needed. Some skill is needed in reconstruction if you are going to the Bay St. Louis area (roofing, dry walling, electrical, carpentry). Depending on what the interest is, followed by appropriate skill level of those interested, we will put together a trip hopefully to fit those going. Once 6-10 people express interest we will develop the time, place, cost and details of such a trip.

We have contacts with numerous skilled leaders plus a wonderful relationship with a church in Bay St. Louis that has developed a facility capable of housing many people. Please let me know if you are interested and I will put you on the list and let you know the details as they are available.

Thanks, Debbie Hyder 376-6340
