VOLUME 6, ISSUE 1 JANUARY 2009

FROM THE PASTOR

The arrival of Epiphany on January 6, 2009 – the holy day commemorating the visitation of the non-Jewish magi to the Christ child and thus the message of redemptive hope given to all the nations – reminds me that it was this liturgical red letter day that occasioned my very first sermon, “Star Seekers and Christ Finders,” at Kingston United Methodist early in 2008. The journey of these exotic travelers to Bethlehem can offer each of us a lesson about how the Christian life means traveling by the map of faith, moving towards that which can never be fully comprehended, only sought after again and again, for in the act of seeking is the finding.

Although we had anticipated returning to Bethel by now and to those two old buildings made wonderfully, almost magically, into one, we are glad that the time of return can now be measured in weeks instead of months. Meanwhile, as we wait, we have good news to share on several fronts. The session recently named the church library the E. John and Doris M. Barber Library, in memory and honor of this couple whose devotion to God and to the work of the Church has meant so much to the Bethel congregation over the years. The Barber family has set up a fund for gifts to honor this couple. A similar recognition of the new kitchen will be made soon, mindful of Joyce and Vernon Law and all they have meant to this church family over the years. As we seek to furnish and equip various rooms and all the Sunday School spaces, the cost of which is outside the building contract of 1.7 million dollars, please let me or a session member know if you'd like to participate in memorializing one of these areas. Steve Jacks and Margaret Murr are working on a memorial book that will be prominently displayed to recognize the many gifts that have enabled Bethel to get to this juncture in our history; you may want to share your ideas with one of them. As items on the ever-shortening list of finishing touches continue to be checked off, a major step affecting our move back involves certification by the inspector that the building is ready for occupancy. This, in large part, will hinge on paving, thus ensuring safety for all. Pray for some sunny weather!

I'd personally like to thank each and everyone for your patience and financial generosity in making this tremendous, huge project possible. Such generosity has come at a difficult time given the downturn in the economy; moreover, I give thanks that the initial word is that our support in 2008 of the regular, ongoing work of the church kept pace with expenditures and that we did not have to dip into reserves.

Hallelujah! That's, indeed, cause for great rejoicing, considering displacement from our facility, a decline in attendance, and the continuation of most all of the usual costs for the mission and ministry of the church. Prior to December, about $140,000 in building fund pledges were still outstanding, with about $10,000 of that received by the end of the year. Our monthly mortgage payments are now a major financial focus, so any pledge you can make to lower that amount will be most welcome.

On a personal note, I am receiving additional radiation to my chest to try and relieve some of the acute pain recently experienced. You know the appreciation I feel for your prayers throughout my illness, and I hope that we, as a faith community, can offer similar support and encouragement to anyone in our community who suffers. Please join me in trusting that, soon, the clouds and fog will give way to spring and resurrection!

Faithfully yours,
Marc Sherrod, Pastor

CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

The session of Bethel has called a congregational meeting for Wednesday, January 21 immediately following the church supper that night. This will be our annual meeting, and the agenda includes passing out (not reading) reports from the various committees, voting on the pastor's terms of call, and electing three from the congregation to serve on the Nominating Committee. Please plan to join us for this meeting.

FROM THE PARISH NURSE

Happy 2009 to everyone. One of the most commonly-made New Year's resolutions each year is one to lose weight. It is one that is equally hard and frustrating to keep. In November 2008 I was diagnosed with diabetes type II and told that I had to lose weight. There was no New Year's resolution for me, this was the real deal. I am a self-proclaimed sweet-a holic. Those were the first to go out of the pantry. Next, were the starches....I still wince when I think of giving up my good ol' yeast rolls and pasta. You see, starches break down in the body into sugar. For those of you who do not have problems with sweets, but still want to lose weight; I read an article that you might be interested in @ MSN Health and Fitness.com.

Once you make up your mind to lose weight make a short term goal. For instance, a good goal would be two pounds lost in 2 weeks' time. After you reach your goal, start over with another goal that is attainable.

If the reason for your diet is cosmetic, a lot of times you will find a way to weasel out of it. "Jeff Volek, Ph.D., R.D., of the University of Connecticut, suggests keeping a daily journal in which one would monitor migraines, heartburn, acne, canker sores and sleep quality in additions to body measurements." (From MSN Health and Fitness.com).

What happens if you goof up and overindulge? Forgive yourself...everyone does that now and again. The important thing is to start again and reestablish your healthy eating pattern. Remember to eat 3-5 healthy meals and snacks and you have started your "habit" again.

It is very important to eat breakfast in the morning after your body has had nothing to eat for 6-8 hours. Otherwise, by the time you get to work you are more likely to grab that sugary doughnut or other snack food.

At home, make it easy on yourself to succeed. Empty your pantry of the foods that are going to make you fail on your diet and stock it with the things that will make you win. Some good things to stock in your cupboard and fridge are: almonds and other nuts, cheese, fruits and vegetables, canned tuna, chicken and salmon. You can pack your lunch to take to work or make sure you have some healthy choices available to you at work.

In the grocery isle the packaging can be very deceiving. Just because the item says "all natural" and made with "organic cane juice"; it is still sugar. Just as if it said pure cane sugar. The same is true with honey- it breaks down to sugar too.

When you have a craving for sweets even though you ate only a few hours ago; are you really hungry, or are you bored? If you are really hungry, think "Would I like another meal?" If the answer is no, get up and move around and go for a walk or get your mind on something else.

Since November I have lost 45 pounds. And yes, I still dream of Shoney's hot fudge cake! (We all have our cross to bearJ). I wish all of you a very happy and prosperous New Year.

To your health.....Deb

The Bible tells us that Jesus asked his disciples to follow him in many ministries, including visiting the prisoners. He taught that when we do, it will be as though we were visiting Him. Bethel has a long history of ministry in the Morgan County Correctional Complex. The reflections below are the thoughts of one of the inmates with whom we have worked:

"Bethel Presbyterian Church has been instrumental in helping prisoners at Morgan County Correctional Complex for many years. As long as I can remember, volunteers from Bethel have participated in church services, picture taking projects, rehabilitative programs, club banquets, scholarships, Christmas packages and many other projects that escape me at this moment. When no one else will help, and it seems that the world is against us, Bethel stands as a light of Christ's love in an otherwise desolate and lonely place.

"Bethel volunteers are more than simply people who help inmates—they are family and friends. Many of us "old heads" around here look forward to the services and other visits from Bethel members because we know we will be treated with respect, compassion, and friendliness. When many churches show up, preach a message calling on us to repent of our sins, and leave seeming smug in their accomplishment, Bethel volunteers exude the demeanor that assures us they do not think themselves better than us, but are fellow travelers on the same road home. This example is what draws many to the church services every fifth Sunday.

"I have been incarcerated for fifteen years and the community that I belong to provides me a sense of normalcy and accountability. Bethel is a large part of this community and an intricate part of our rehabilitation. Space and time prohibit me from sharing the many times Bethel has come to our aid, the many encouragements we receive from the members of Bethel, and the impact all of you have had on our lives that will last for eternity. On behalf of the prisoners here, I would like to say thank you and encourage others to take up the task of ministry to a forgotten people." —Jeremy Ingram

We need new volunteers to join us in this ministry. It is not everybody's calling but many of us have found it was an opportunity for spiritual growth. If you are interested in exploring this possibility, contact Karen Schall for how to apply for Volunteer clearance.

NEW BETHEL WEB SITE EDITOR - JANUARY 1, 2009

Marianne Shadden wishes to resign as Bethel's Web Site Editor. Marianne has been our editor since August, 2004. Grateful appreciation is expressed to Marianne for all her work with the Bethel site.

Danny Holloway has graciously agreed to be Bethel's new Web Site Editor. As Web Site Editor, Danny Holloway will be responsible for the information and visual content on Bethel's site – for keeping that information current, for assisting Bethel members who have information that they want on the site, and for making sure that the site continues to reflect the spirit and work of Bethel. The Editor will also work with Dan McDowell, Bethel's web site designer/programmer, to make sure the site is appealing and easy to use, both for Bethel members and for others who visit the site (Dan McDowell is currently creating a new web site for Bethel – Danny Holloway will be instrumental in ensuring that the new site has content that is accurate and up-to-date). Please make sure that you give any and all thoughts and material relating to the Bethel web site to Danny Holloway. Danny can be contacted at: webeditor@bethelpcusa.org.

STEWARDSHIP & FINANCE

We haven't finalized the numbers for 2008, but here is some preliminary information on how we fared this past year:

Even though our budget income was 15% less than we had planned, we ended the year with only a $7,000 loss thanks to wise spending on the part of staff and committees.

This year we gave $27,000 to specific missions identified by Bethel and $30,000 to the PC(USA) ministries and missions.

Our General (Budget) Fund has $5,000 more than required for starting the new year. We always keep $40,000 as an extreme emergency fund and try to start the year with $20,000 for budgeted expenses. Initial figures tell us we have $65,000 in the General Fund.

In December we received almost $19,000 in building fund pledges. Our pledges receivable are about $120,000. We have received 90% of the original 3 year pledge amounts.

We have pledges for about half of our estimated monthly mortgage payment. If you would like to commit to a monthly amount to help pay the mortgage payment, please send a note to the Bethel Office, attention Stewardship & Finance.

Remember, these numbers are not final. A complete reporting will be presented at the annual congregational meeting in January. Finally, each of you deserves a big THANK YOU for the support you give to Bethel's ministries.

THE 2009 ADULT AND CHILDREN'S MISSION YEAR BOOKS are available in the Narthex and in the church office.

DESIGN AND DEVELOPMENT

We're getting there! Our building project is getting closer and closer to completion. ## PHOTOS OF CHRISTMAS CAROLING AVAILABLE ONLINE

On the 21st of December, Kingston United Methodist and Bethel Presbyterian Carolers amassed and split into youth and adult groups. We were very glad to have so many participating! The youth traveled to Harriman Care and Rehab and Oak Ridge NHC to carol. The twenty-two adults split off into two groups with one going to Rockwood Care and Rehab and private homes in Rockwood while the other group went to Jamestowne Assisted Living and Wellington Place and private homes in Kingston. Afterwards, we met back at Vic and Nancy King's home for an after-caroling party. If you would like to see some of the pictures I made that night, please go to www.bethelpcusa.org on the internet and hit photos. —Deb Hyder

NEW YEAR'S DAY DINNER

For the past two years, members of KUMC and Bethel Presbyterian have united to provide a traditional New Year's Day dinner for the emergency personnel on duty in Roane County. Thanks go to members of both churches who provided food and helped with the distribution New Year's Day. A special thanks goes to Jack McNew and Janet Moore for recognizing this need and organizing the event. Jack also provided the hams. Another special thanks goes to Liz Singley for coordinating all the work in the kitchen.

This year the two churches served approximately 50 personnel who were on duty that day including several out-of-state emergency personnel who were involved in the clean up activities around the lake in Kingston. We had people from at least four southern states join us for lunch.

If you want a special treat, try Marguerete Floyd's recipe for rolling bacon and hog jowls in flour and frying. It is delicious.

YOUTH NEWS

After a very, very busy December, with a wonderful children's pageant, "Twinkle and the All-Star Band," and middle and high school youth involved in making a Christmas float for the Kingston parade and completing a service project with the children of inmates, we're making plans for the new year that will include study, fellowship and service focused on our Sunday evening 6:00-7:30 time. If you haven't tried out our combined youth experience with the Methodist youth, give it a try. We usually have 20 or so youth present, and there's always much laughter and wonderful fellowship.

SPRING MISSION TRIP 2009

The Presbyterian Disaster Response Network is in the planning stages of a spring mission trip. Both men and women over the age of 18 are invited to participate. For those of you who went on the Biloxi trip you might remember Mr. Joe Fielden. This morning Fritz said that Joe will be returning with us this Spring, so I look forward to his expertise in the construction field.

A contact is being made in the Beaumont, Texas area where the need is "Basic" in that homes need to be "mucked" or cleaned out from the mess left by Hurricane Ike but we're also looking to send a team or teams back to the Gulf Bay St. Louis area where there is still major rebuilding work needed. Some skill is needed in reconstruction if you are going to the Bay St. Louis area ( roofing, dry walling, electrical, carpentry ). Depending on what the interest is, followed by appropriate skill level of those interested, we will put together a trip hopefully to fit those going. Once 6-10 people express interest we will develop the time, place, cost and details of such a trip.

We have contacts with numerous skilled leaders plus a wonderful relationship with a church in Bay St. Louis that has developed a facility capable of housing many people. Please let me know if you are interested and I will put you on the list and let you know the details as they are available. — Debbie Hyder 376-6340

If you have a concern you want mentioned in the worship service, please fill out a Prayer Card and place it in the offering plate. You may also place a Prayer Card (by 10:15 AM) in the Prayer Request Box on Bethel's table in the Narthex.

A HYMN FOR THE NEW YEAR

Washington Gladden, a prolific Congregationalist pastor during the early 20th century, became well-known for his stands on social issues.

His hymn, "O Master, Let Me Walk With Thee," partially quoted below, appeals to Christ for his companionship, guidance, inner peace and hope. It's an ideal hymn for beginning a new year.

O Master, let me walk with thee
 In lowly paths of service free;
 Tell me thy secret; help me bear,
 The strain of toil, the fret of care.

In hope that sends a shining ray
 Far down the future's broadening way,
 In peace that only thou canst give,
 With thee, O Master, let me live.

WE GIVE YOU THANKS,
 AND praise YOUR

Prayer Reminders

The members and regularly attending friends of Bethel are assigned to elder care groups. Each month, we publish the list of one or more elder care groups in the newsletter for your prayers. The elder's name and phone at the top of the list are listed as a reminder of their role in nurturing and supporting those who belong to Bethel. You should feel free to contact your elder or the pastor if you have a particular spiritual need or other matter that needs to be brought to our attention.
